Behavior Guidelines:

I agree to behave respectfully of camp counselors and fellow campers. This means that I will not verbally insult anyone, I will treat others as I would like to be treated, and I will follow directions if asked to do something by an adult. I understand that participating in summer camp is a privilege, and if I am unable to treat others with respect, I may be dismissed from camp. I also understand that I will be learning new skills, and that some of these skills will take practice before I can master them. I agree to be open to learning new skills, and that I will keep trying if something is difficult for me at first.
